

NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde: 2015-16 Annual Review: Outcomes At A Glance - Selected Measures

Reduction in C-Diff rates since 2013 ↑ Crude Rate per 1,000 OCBD/AOBD for patients aged 15 years and over by year ending	Alcohol and Drugs - Waiting Times for Referral to Treatment ↔ Alcohol and Drugs - Waiting Times - % seen within 3 weeks	1.0% reduction in eligible patients treated within 31 days of urgent referral for cancer treatment since April 2015 ↓ Proportion of patients who began cancer treatment within 31 days or urgent referral (31 day standard)
Delayed Discharges patients waiting over 14 days The number of delayed patients waiting over 14 days reduced by 51.4% in 2015/16, from 70 in March 2015 to 34 in March 2016.	Alcohol The alcohol-related hospital discharges EASR per 100,000 people was 985 in 2014/15 (provisional). Scotland's rate was 672 for the same period.	Early Years In 2015, 90.3% of babies were of healthy birth weight (appropriate weight for gestational age). Scotland figure was 90.0% for the same period.
A&amp;E Waiting Times 90.6% of patients waited less than 4 hours to be seen at A&amp;E in March 2016. A&amp;E Waits less than 4 hours (%)	Waiting Times 96.1% of new outpatients waited no longer than 12 weeks for a new outpatient appointment as at March 2016.	Waiting Times 91.5% of patient journeys were within 18 weeks Referral to Treatment exceeding the 90% target.	End of Life Setting In 2013/14, 88.7% of time in the last six months of life was spent at home or in a community setting. Scotland was 90.8% for the same period.
Key	↑ Improving	↓ Deteriorating	↔ No Change	▬ No Trend