

Help reduce bloodstream infection

Remember to assess the need for a peripheral venous cannula (PVC) on a daily basis and complete the patient's PVC care plan each day.

Remove any cannulae that are no longer required or where there is redness at the insertion site.