Unannounced Healthcare Improvement Scotland inspection

Many of you will have taken part in the three-day unannounced Healthcare Improvement Scotland inspection that has just finished and I wanted to write to thank you for all that you have done to accommodate the inspectors and answer their questions.

Your professionalism and enthusiasm in demonstrating the high quality care you provide to your patients was all the more remarkable given the very challenging times we are in at present.

Whilst the feedback from the inspection is awaited, we understand that our patients spoke highly of the care they are receiving. I am never in doubt of the high standards of care that our staff strive to provide and I believe that you have firmly demonstrated this this week. Thank you.
