

TCV at QEUH Gro Garden

A total of 20 volunteers have been involved the development of the GroGarden at the QEUH working alongside partners such as ERZ and Glasgow Wood Recycling.

Join in, feel good

TCV at QEUH Gro Garden

"One of my volunteers says he was talking to a friend who had been visiting someone at the hospital recently. He said he was looking out from the 5th floor on this new garden area that was being constructed with green roofs and paths, it looked absolutely brilliant he said"- TCV Senior Project Officer"

Join in, feel good

TCV at QEUH Gro Garden

The projects impact on the volunteers:

- 100% of volunteers feel more connected to nature
- 100% of volunteers feel the project has had a positive impact on the local greenspace
- 85.8% of the volunteers are more likely to visit local greenspaces
- 100% of the volunteers have learnt new skills
- 71.5% feel they have improved their employment opportunities
- 85.7% feel more confident
- 100% of the volunteers feel more connected to their local community
- 85.7% of volunteers feel the project has had a positive impact on the local community
- 100% of the volunteers feel their well-being has improved

Join in, feel good

TCV at QEUH Gro Garden

"I would like to get experience in a variety of different tasks/activities. i have enjoyed the variety over the two days so far"
- TCV Volunteer

"The project is well organised. The staff and volunteers are really friendly and welcoming" -
TCV Volunteer

"I thought it was a good experience for me, Bo and Craig are very helpful. Bo is a decent worker and showed me what to do" -
TCV Volunteer

"Very nice, very interesting. I have been telling lots of people about it" - TCV Volunteer

Join in, feel good

TCV
The Conservation Volunteers